

- D. If registration is required for the event, the registration generally will be allowed no more than twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the requested activity. Organizers of the event accept all liability/responsibility for the registered participants.

II. In-Person Solicitation

- A. In-person solicitation activities, including distribution of printed materials and/or advocacy of a cause/belief, is limited to exterior areas as approved by UAA.
 - 1) Examples of these exterior areas are: the Bookstore plaza, the Library plaza, and the Cuddy Quad
- B. No solicitation may be permitted in buildings generally designated as classroom structures or residence halls.
 - 1) Handbills, leaflets, pamphlets, and similar materials may be left with the Residence Director for posting on residential bulletin boards.
- C. Solicitation activities may in no way impede or hinder pedestrian and/or vehicular traffic.

III. Posting of Printed Materials

- A. Posting of printed materials will be allowed on bulletin boards and other surfaces as designated by UAA.
- B. All posted materials must have specific information as to the individual/organization responsible for the material.
- C. No posting on glass surfaces is allowed.
- D. Handbills, leaflets, pamphlets, and other similar materials shall not be placed on vehicles parked on UAA property.

IV. Camping and Fires

- A. Camping on UAA property is strictly prohibited.
- B. Open flames and fires are not allowed on UAA property. This includes camp fires, bonfires, open flamed candles, etc.
 - 1) Occasionally UAA events want to use fire barrels. These activities are coordinated through Environmental Health & Safety and permitted through the Anchorage Fire Department.

V. Resources

AS 14.40.291 – Land of the University of Alaska not public domain land

Facilities Scheduling Office – uaa_rooms@uaa.alaska.edu

University Police Department

Facilities and Campus Services

Residence Life

Environmental Health & Safety