

Model UN of Alaska, UAA

Permission Form

Political Science Department/Model UN
3211 Providence Drive
Anchorage, AK 99508

Students participating in the Model United Nations of Alaska conference will be in for an exciting adventure in international diplomacy. Students will not only experience what it is like to do the work of the U.N., they will also experience what it is like to be citizens of various countries. During the conference meals, light refreshments and beverages will be provided for all students, teachers and volunteers. Do not assume that a full meal will be served.